

Employers Centers of Excellence Network

ECEN

National Bundled Payment Summit
Tuesday, June 17, 2014

Olivia Ross, MPH MBA
Pacific Business Group on Health

Overview

- ❖ Program Introduction
- ❖ Partnering with Providers
- ❖ Supporting Employers
- ❖ ECEN In Action
- ❖ Looking Ahead
- ❖ Key Takeaways

Program Introduction

Aligning for Better Care

- PBGH Foundation
- HDP Experience and Expertise
- Employer and Provider Knowledge

Evolving Strategy

Center Evaluation Criteria

Employer Needs

- ◆ Location
- ◆ Bundled payment design
- ◆ Travel surgery experience
- ◆ Reporting on COE performance

Quality of Care

- ◆ Outcomes data and rankings
- ◆ Volume, training and experience
- ◆ Patient safety and satisfaction scores
- ◆ Application of evidence-based medicine

Patient Experience

- ◆ Shared decision making
- ◆ Supportive resources
- ◆ Attention to the patient experience across the complete care continuum

Partnering with Providers

Committing to Collaboration

- Contribute to Bundle Design
- Participate in Guideline Development
- Share Best Practices

Selected Hip and Knee Centers

- ♦ Virginia Mason Medical Center
Seattle, WA
- ♦ Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center
Baltimore, MD
- ♦ Kaiser Permanente Irvine Medical Center
Irvine, CA
- ♦ Mercy Hospital, Springfield
Springfield, MO

Supporting Employers

Realizing Value

- Turnkey Process
- Cost Predictability
- Return on Investment within 2 Years

ECEN in Action

Exceeding Expectations

- Patient-Centered
- High Employee Satisfaction

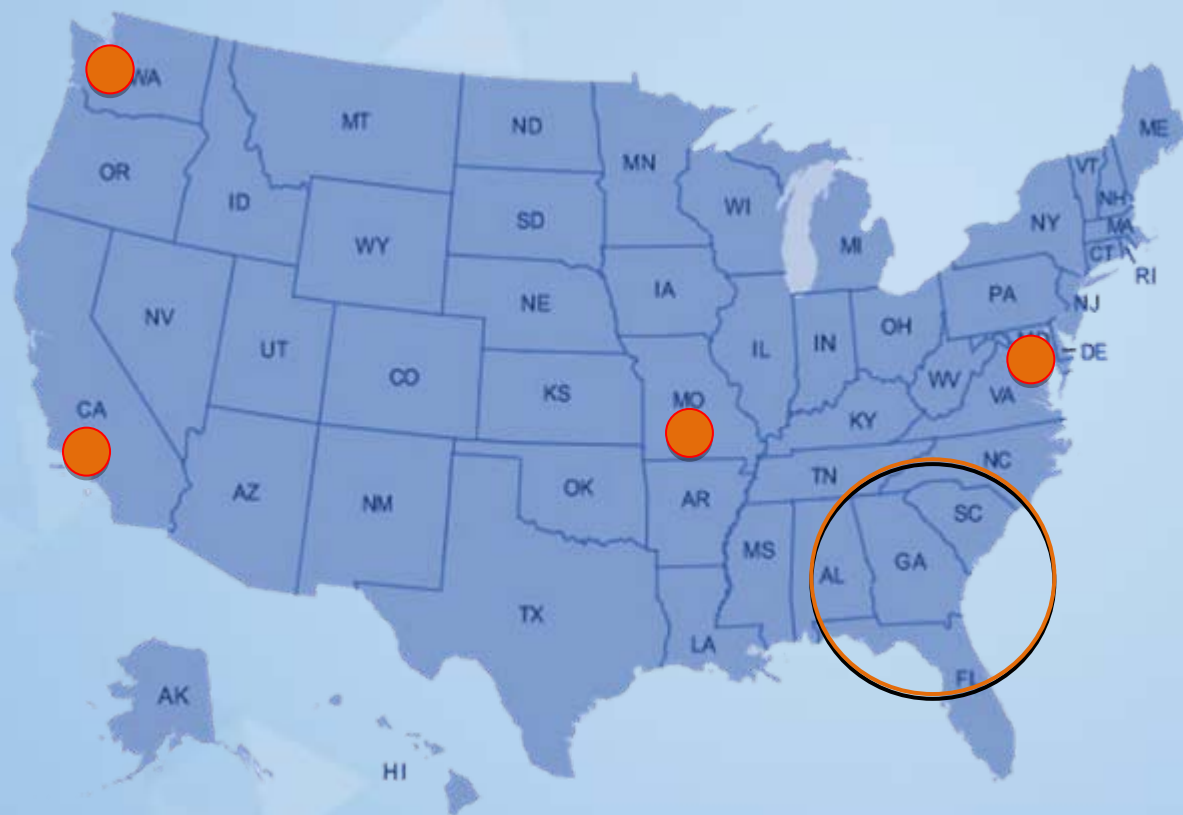

Initial Response

1/1/14 to 4/30/14

- Program Inquiries: 1042
- Referrals to a COE: 453
- Under COE review: 143
- Accepted and awaiting surgery: 99
- Cases completed: 100

Looking Ahead

ECEN Key Takeaways

1. Connects employers and high performing facilities
2. Engages selected providers as key program partners
3. Minimizes employer burden with PBGH/HDP support
4. Provides cost predictability and downstream savings
5. Enhances value by growing utilization and expansion
6. Demonstrates leadership in advocating for value-based health care purchasing