

The Health Information Technology Symposium at MIT

July 17 – 20, 2006
MIT Stata Center

Opening Plenary Session – July 17

Remarks by Ernst R. Berndt, Ph.D., MIT Sloan School of Management,
Co-Director, MIT Center for Biomedical Innovation, and Co-Director,
MIT-Harvard Biomedical Enterprise Program

Welcome!

- To
 - Cambridge, Massachusetts
 - MIT
 - Stata Center for Computer, Informatics and Intelligence Services
 - MIT Center for Biomedical Innovation
 - MIT Center for eBusiness

Logistics of HIT @ MIT

- Registration
 - Open today until 6:30 p.m.
 - Opens tomorrow at 7:00 a.m.
- Reception
 - Tonight at 6:30 p.m. at MIT Museum (0.4 mile walk – directions provided – but shuttle available for those preferring not to walk – all are welcome!)

Logistics of HIT @ MIT (cont'd.)

- Changes in schedule / agenda
 - The Pocket Schedule contains the most up to date schedule
 - All changes are posted on the message board at the Registration Desk
- Internet access
 - Available at the Cyber Café (halfway between this room and Room 141)
 - All presentations received to date are posted on conference website – www.HITSymposium.com
- Proceedings available on CD

Logistics of HIT @ MIT (concluded)

- CME
 - Faculty Disclosure Forms – summary in binder, late entries posted on bulletin board each day
 - Want CME credits? Must complete credit application form & evaluation forms in binder
 - Hand in completed forms to CME station in Registration area (late applications not accepted)

HIT @ MIT

- Today's highlights
 - 1:45 Health Information Technology – Past, Present and Future
 - 2:45 The Role of Government – IT and Health Care
 - 4:15 Break
 - 4:45 Privacy Issues
 - 6:00 The Employer Perspective
 - 6:30 Opening Reception at the MIT Museum

HIT @ MIT

- Tuesday morning's schedule highlights
 - 8:00 Introduction – David Verrill
 - 8:15 Government HIT Infrastructure Complexity
 - 10:45 The Role of Consultants and Vendors in U.S. HIT
 - 12:15 Networking Luncheon

HIT @ MIT

- Tuesday afternoon's schedule highlights
 - 12:15 Networking Luncheon
 - 1:15 – 5:30 with 15 minute break midway
 - Track I A – HIE / RHIO Implementation Tools: The Markle Foundation's Connecting for Health Common Framework
 - Track II A – Electronic Health Records: Overview, Acquisition and Implementation
 - Track III A – E-Prescribing and CPOE
 - 5:30 Tours of MIT campus
 Charles River Sunset Cruise
 Play MIT Sloan Business School Beer Game
 (all limited availability)

HIT @ MIT

- Wednesday morning's schedule highlights
 - 8:00 Productivity and Organizational Transformation with IT
 - 8:30 Risk Management with Point of Action System in Japan
 - 9:15 Bridging the Patient-Provider Health Information Gap
 - 10:15 Break
 - 10:30 State and Community Interoperability Initiatives
 - 11:00 Wall Street and VC Perspectives on HIT
 - 11:30 Creating Value-Based Competition on Results

HIT @ MIT

- Wednesday afternoon's schedule highlights
 - 12:15 Networking Luncheon
 - 1:30 – 5:45 with 15 minute break midway
 - Track I B – HIT / RHIO Implementation Tools: The eHealth Initiatives Connecting Communities Tool Kit
 - Track II B – Implementing Electronic Records Systems in Medical Practices
 - Track III B – HIT Case Studies
 - Evening – On Your Own – Enjoy!

HIT @ MIT

- Thursday's closing plenary session
 - 8:00 Introductory Remarks – John Iglehart
 - 8:15 Future of AI Methods to Medical Decision Making – Peter Szolovitz
 - 8:45 Trust and Consumer Advocacy in Healthcare – Glen Urban
 - 9:15 Healthcare Distinguished CIO Roundtable
 - 10:30 Break
 - 11:00 Pay for Performance and HIT – Richard Norling
 - 11:30 Limits and Role of HIT in National Health Reform – Gilad Kuperman
 - 12:00 Adjourn

HIT @ MIT

- Have to miss an important session?
 - You can order a CD of the proceedings at the Registration Desk, or on the www.HITSymposium.com website

HIT @ MIT

- Thank you to our sponsors!
 - Health Affairs
 - Harvard Health Policy Review
 - MIT Center for Biomedical Innovation
 - MIT Center for eBusiness

HIT @ MIT

- Panel: Health Information Technology in the U.S.: Past, Present and Future

Moderator: Molly Joel Coye, MD, MPH,
Founder and CEO of the Health
Technology Center (Healthtech),
San Francisco, CA