

Roundtable on Sustainable Financing for Population Health

Irene Krokos, MD

Name of project or collaborative

Molina Healthcare Community Connectors

Geography

National

Brief description

Target population/community:

Molina Healthcare Medicaid, Medicare & Marketplace managed care members.

Health issue or condition that is the focus of the project/collaborative:

Empowering members to achieve better health outcomes within their community.

Main strategies used by the project/collaborative:

Leveraging Community Healthcare Workers (Community Connectors) to engage and empower members towards improved health outcomes.

Partners/Sectors that are part of the project/collaborative:

State Medicaid organizations, community partners.

Duration/when it was initiated: 2004

Relevance of project to this breakout session

Community Connectors as a population health strategy can engage people to achieve better health outcomes within their communities.

Results/outcomes

Community Connector intervention has shown to decrease healthcare costs and improve health outcomes. (Kaufman, A. et al., Journal of Community Health, (2012) 37:564-571).

Funding

Molina Healthcare Inc.

Contact

Irene Krokos, MD

Irene.Krokos@molinahealthcare.com